Celebrations—On Sunday July 22 it will be the 190th Anniversary of the chapel and also the 25th Anniversary of the Wesley Centre. We want to especially celebrate 25 years of the Centre serving the Church and the Community. We are delighted to inform you that Lord Griffiths will be preaching at 10.30am and 6.00pm. The Church Stewards are in the process of collating ideas for the celebrations... please forward any ideas you have for that weekend to them... we want feasible and practical suggestions... with volunteers to support... the deadline is February 18 for them to be incorporated into the programme for the weekend

Car Parking—the yellows lines in the car park are only to be respected during office hours from Monday to Friday when the whole area is sublet. In the evenings and at weekends, please utilise the whole space so that a greater number of vehicles may be parked with due consideration to others. The only exception being the slot allotted to the minister which must always be respected.
