It is with regret that we announce the resignation of James Preston from his post as Children's and Families Worker. James' last day with us will be Sunday 13th January. We thank James for all he has contributed through his time with us. We assure James, Lily, Blossom and Fjord of our prayers and best wishes for the future.

The Prayer Book/Box—The Prayer Book has been replaced by the Prayer Box. The box will be placed on the Prayer Table throughout the week, with appropriate slips nearby, and you are invited to use it. On Sundays, it will be moved to the concourse for your convenience, and brought to the Prayer Table during the singing of the first hymn.

Note for Pastoral Visitors—The Church Christmas Cards are now ready for you to pick up from the tables in the Concourse and deliver to those people on your list. Thank you.

National Children's Homes— (Action for Children) as is traditional at Wesley, instead of offerings at the special Christmas Services (The Christingle. Christmas Eve Communion and Christmas Day Celebration) there will be a retiring collection for the N.C.H. This is a great opportunity for those of us who have sufficient, to help those less fortunate: and practice the reason for the season. (gift aid envelopes available).

Please help—Sunday 23 December at 4pm. Making Christingles in preparation for the Christmas Eve service. More people the better! Many thanks—Tracey Hunt
